

IAC Small Grants for Research 2022-23

SGR-A

Tibor Besedes

School of Economics

Social Norms and the Consumption of Eco-Labeled Products

Awarded Funding: $11,500

Jennifer Singh

School of History and Sociology

Addressing Health Inequities: Autism Services Map 2.0

Awarded Funding: $13,250

SGR-B

Dylan Brewer

School of Economics

Compliance and Defiance with Emergency Orders: Evidence from Texas Smart Thermostat Data

Awarded Funding: $5,000

Alberto Fuentes

Sam Nunn School of International Affairs

Escaping the Middle-Income Trap: A Central American Perspective

Awarded Funding: $4,975

Noura Howell

School of Literature, Media, and Communication

Exploring the Promise and Peril of Emotion AI

Awarded Funding: $5,000

Lu Liu

School of Modern Languages

Chinese Space Father in the Cold War

Awarded Funding: $5,000

David Muchlinski

Sam Nunn School of International Affairs

Radicalized Discourse in Social Media as Early Warning for Political Violence

Awarded Funding: $5,000

Matthew Oliver

School of Economics

Wind Generation and the Electricity Supply-Demand Balance: Evidence from US Regional Power Markets

Awarded Funding: $4,500

Brigitte Stephanov

School of Modern Languages

In-Human: Cruelty in War and Literature

Awarded Funding: $5,000

Brian Woodall

Sam Nunn School of International Affairs

Institutional Resilience, Disaster Mitigation, and the Swan Matrix How to Prepare for, Manage, and Adapt to Extreme Events

Awarded Funding: $5,000

Gregory Zinman

School of Literature, Media, and Communication

Screening Publics: Scenes From a Counterhistory of the Moving Image, 1980-2020

Awarded Funding: $5,000

SGR-CCarol Colatrella

School of Literature, Media, and Communication

Feminism's Long Arc: Representing Gender Politics in Cultural Narratives

Cheryl Leggon

School of Public Policy

Promising Policies and Practices to Enhance Participation of Indigenous Groups in STEM

John Smith

School of History and Sociology

The Show: When Michael Jordan Became America's Pastime