IAC Special Opportunity for Faculty Development Activities (SODA) 2022

SODA: External Funding

Nadiya Kostyuk
School of Public Policy
The Political Geography of Cyberspace and the Distribution of Cyber Conflict
Awarded Funding: $4,000

Anjali Thomas
Sam Nunn School of International Affairs
The Influence of State Actors on Citizens' Pro-Social and Pro-Developmental Behavior in India
Awarded Funding: $4,000

Amanda Weiss
School of Modern Languages
NEH Application in Support of Global Media Festival
Awarded Funding: $4,000

SODA: Research Activity

Richard Barke
School of Public Policy
Policy Obligations to Future Generations
Awarded Funding: $6,000

Diana Hicks
School of Public Policy
Tracing Knowledge Influences on States Dealing with Sociotechnical Transition
Awarded Funding: $6,000

William Winders
School of History and Sociology
Inequality in Farmland Ownership in Dodge County, Georgia, 1929-1986
Awarded Funding: $4,200

Hongchen Wu
School of Modern Languages
Wh-prosody in Mandarin Chinese
Awarded Funding: $6,000

SODA: Curriculum Development

Kelly Comfort
School of Modern Languages
Teaching the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): A Global Humanities Approach
Awarded Funding: $6,000

Hans Klein
School of Public Policy
Curriculum Development for Political Processes (PUBP 2010)
Awarded Funding: $5,500

Lu Liu
School of Modern Languages
Challenges of Sustainability in Contemporary China
Awarded Funding: $5,500

Cecilia Montes-Alcala
School of Modern Languages
Bilingualism in the Spanish-Speaking World Redesigned
Awarded Funding: $5,000

Brigitte Stephanov
School of Modern Languages
Connecting Globally through Curriculum Development
Awarded Funding: $1,000